kankanamitra637@gmail.com

As a student of Literature and my co-curricular activities starting from my school time helped me imbibe great communication skills and an ability to recognize needs of other people and build holistic and meaningful relationships. Resilient and self-motivated I bring great work ethics. My academic as well as co-curricular activities makes me a great team-worker. A person curious in nature I always strive for new and exciting opportunities.
